

9th Annual Texas Monetary Conference

INFORMATION

The 9th Annual Texas Monetary Conference will be hosted by the Economics Department of Rice University on Saturday, March 31 through Sunday, April 1. It will take place on the first floor of the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy located on Rice University's campus, 6100 Main Street, Houston, TX.

Participants may park anywhere on campus (parking regulations do not apply on weekends), though the most convenient access is through the Stadium Lot. For a look at the campus map, click here.

Sponsoring institutions for the Texas Monetary Conference are: Rice University, University of Houston, University of Texas, Texas A&M University, Southern Methodist University and the Dallas Fed. Individuals from these institutions may participate free of charge. Individuals from other institutions may participate upon payment of a fee of $100.00 per person.

You may receive hotel information by contacting Felecia Jones in the Economics Department at 713-348-4875.

For additional information, please contact Professor Monika Merz at mmerz@rice.edu.
